WE LAID HER DOWN TO REST.

MUSIC BY F.W.RAUCH.

ANDANTE.

VOICE

PIANO.

1, The Sum – mer winds were light – ly

strung, The gold – en eve drew near,

The gen – tle zeph – yrs sweet – ly

sung To call from us a tear;

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1867, by J. J. Dobmeyer & Co, in the Clerk's Office of the South'n Dist, Court of Ohio.

Oh! sad _ ly sweet that mourn _ ful strain That call'd her to the blest, As 'neath the green and fer _ tile

plain We laid her down to rest.

Ped.

Ped. Ped.

ANDANTE.

3, The gen – tle voice we lov'd so well Is

2, The sun – shine of that smile is gone, And

hush'd a – mid the gloom That hov – ers

hush'd the songs we heard; Her harp, now

round us like a spell, As mourn – ful as the

si – lent, stands a – lone, Save by some spir – it tomb; 'Tis bro – ken now, the gold – en chain, And stirr'd. We list to hear those songs a – gain, Sweet cold the brow we press'd, For 'neath the

an - thems of the blest, But 'neath the

green and fer - tile plain We laid her down to

green and fer - tile plain We laid her down to

rest.

rest.

FINE.